CANDIDATES FLOCKING TO THE RIVER DISTRICT

East Side Becomes Battling Ground for Republican Nominees

BIG VOTING CENTERS

Prospect of Large Party Vote in Valley Towns Inspires Effort

That the river district is the battle ground for the Republican nominees at the forthcoming primary, is evidenced by the round-up of candidates who have been rendezvou.ing in Charleroi during the past few days. Nearly every candidate for the Republican nomination is making a final tour of the river district and in all probability each and every one will concentrate his efforts here during the last few days of the compaign.

There is good reasen for this round-up. Outside of the county seat the river district affords the greatest centers of population in the county, where the vote is more easily gotten out. Then, too, the river district was with some slight exceptions the only territory of any considerable proportions that was not shot to pieces by the Keystone movement last fall. This is the only section that can with any degree of certainty be counted upon to give a big Republican vote, and to get that vote bunched for their special benefit is the object and aim of each and every candidate. That is why so much activity is displayed in the river district.

With local contests for municipal officers in each of the boroughs and townships, there is pretty sure to be perhaps the largest vote ever polled at an election. Charleroi, which usually has from 1,500 to 1,600 voters registered, is expected topoll close to 1,200 votes at the primary, between 900 and 1,000 of which should be Republican. Owing to the shut-down of the Pittsburg Plate Glass factory and the Charleroi Coal Works nearly all summer, in the neighborhood of 1,000 people were thrown idle, many of whom have sought work elsewhere. This will, in all probability, cut down the vote to what it would have been had all the local industries been running full time.

Monongahela and Donora however, will likely poll a bigger Republican vote than ever before. Owing to the candidacy of local men in each, as well as the municipal elections, every effort will be made to get out the vote. Monongahela, which boasts a city charter, that requires personal registration, has already registered in the neighborhood of 1,200 voters. As these took the trouble to go to the registration places and inscribe their names, it is pretty safe to assume that they will turn out and vote at the primaries. While the Keystone vote was heavier in Monongahela than in any of the other river towns last fall, it is stated that on account of the candidacy of local people there many who voted the Keystone ticket will return to the Republican fold, so that an unprecedented vote is expected to be cast thereat the primary.

So far as Donora is concerned, the voters there are making a united effort for their candidate for prothonotary and expect to present an unbroken front in his behalf. Whether the town will present the some front to the candidates of the alleged slate

Campaign A Pleasure

Candidate Meets Old Time Friends and Has Good Time

R. G. Miller,Esq., of Washington, Republican candidate for the nomination for district attorney, was in town over Tuesday night in the final round-up of his campaign on the river district. "Dick" says his fences are in good shape, and in addition to the hard work the campaign entails he has had much pleasure in meeting old school friends up California way, where he used to attend the normal, and in which community he followed the footsteps of all great men—taught school in order to get a start.

HER LIFE IN PERIL

Wife Swears Husband is Subject to Diabolical Moods

SLEPT WITH WEAPONS

Lying alongside of her husband night after night for several weeks, with the fear of death always before her, as she alleges, and passing the night from darkness to daylight tossing on her bed, watching for the slightest movement of her husband while he had concealed under his pillow a revolver, a razor and a bottle of carbolic acid, which he told her that he had secured to wipe her from the face of the earth, Mrs Nellie V. Bealty has sought the livorce court to free her from the fear that she claims to have held for during a brief married life.

The Bealty's are residents of Belle Vernon, Mrs. Bealty having married the correspondent who was formerly a local mill man, in 1901. The testimony before the court at Uniontown Saturday was the most sensational ever brought into a divorce suit in Fayette county.

Pulled out of bed at unseemly hours kicked and beaten, almost strangled to death with a well rope, chased from her home in the dead of night with the husband following with a hatchet to scalp her, are only a few of the charges she has testified to in her suit for divorce from her husband. A. P. Beatly. Her life has been one of fright and she has prayed the courts to release her from a man, who she says, whipped her and threatened many times since their honeymoon to kill her..

Game Was a Tie.

The second of a series of three games between the Monessen Lutherans and the Belle Vernon Christians of the Church League of those two towns for a purse of $25 was played at Belle Vernon Tuesday. The game was called in the ninth inning on account of darkness with the score a tie—3-3.

ROSCOE CITIZENS GET ROAD BEE IN BONNETS

Petitions Out to Ask State Highway Commissioner Bigelow to Extend Improved Road Up the River This Fall

By the circulation of petitions from Roscoe to Speers, a movement has been started to try to induce the State Commissioner of Highways, E. M. Bigelow, when he constructs that portion of route No. 118 which leads from Speers to Charleroi, to extend his activities a short distance up the river. Efforts are on foot to try to induce Commissioner Bigelow to include in his work in this section this fall that section of route No. 268 which begins at Speers and constitutes the route from Greensburg to Waynesburg.

The movement started at Roscoe. Petitions were drawn up and circulated by citizens interested in the project, and Commissioner Bigelow will be communicated with by those concerned. What the people there want is the construction of the road this fall leading from Speers to Roscoe. This is a part of the so-called river boulevard, and its construction would unite all the populous communities between Roscoe and Charleroi.

The construction of this road would be of inestimable benefit to Charleroi, and the Roscoe people are anxious to enlist the people here in behalf of their project. Route No. 268, when completed, would follow the river, taking in California, West Brownsville and all the towns along the river to the Greene county line, and thence across the country to Waynesburg, in the great State plan to connect all the county seats Route No. 118 on a portion of which the State engineers are now working, extends from Greensburg to Washington by way of Belle Vernon, Speers, Charleroi and up Maple Creek, on its way to our county seat. The route from Greensburg to Waynesburg uses route No. 118 from Greensburg to Speers, and from thence it proceeds up the river and across the country to Waynesburg, as stated, when it becomes route No. 268.

With the efforts of the Roscoe and Speers people, and what aid Charleroi might be able to give, it may be possible to get this section of route No. 268 from Speers to Roscoe included in the work to be done here this fall. If this can be accomplished with what is in prospect below, a continuous system of improved roads from Roscoe down the river through Charleroi to Pittsburg would be virtually inaugurated. A big effort will be made to get the Speers-Roscoe road included.

NABBED SUSPECT AT MONGAH MINE

Man With Bullet in Thigh Thought to be Bridgeville Assassin

Suspected of knowing something of the killing of David J. Steen, superintendent of the Lake Superior mine near Bridgeville last week and unable to satisfactorily explain a bullet wound in his thigh, Philip Polosky was arrested Monday at the Mongah mine near Monongahela by Constable Samuel Hobaugh. The man was today lodged in the Alegheny county jail to await posible identification.

It seems that Polosky came to the Mongah mine Sunday evening and calling on a physician had a 38-caliber bullet removed from his thigh. He asked the doctor to sap nothing of the matter. The physician however notified the authorities and Constable Hobaugh questioned Polosky. The man was nervous and told several different stories of how he was shot. Thinking he might know something about the Steen murder of last Saturday the man was arrested.

MONON PHYSICIAN HAS CLOSE SHAVE

When his automobile was caught by a freight engine at the Main street crossing of the M. and W. road in the First ward in Monongahela Tuesday Dr. H. T. Billick of Monongahela had a remarkable escape from death or serious injury.

Dr. Billick in speaking to a friend failed to see the flagman's warning as he aproached the crossing. His automobile crashed directly into the pilot of a southbound freight engine. The engine caught the automobile and carried it along ahead of it a distance of 40 feet finally coming to a stop on the trestle over Pigeon creek.

When the car stopped Dr. Billick was still at the wheel and beyond a slight injury to the foot was unhurt. The rear of the car was badly wrecked.

Expects His Share.

"Bert" Lutton of Washington, candidate for the Republican nomination for sheriff was looking Charleroi over yesterday. "Bert" is well known here, and expects at least to get a portion of the Republican votes cast for sheriff.

FORTY-TWO VETS HOLD REUNION

Survivors of 18th Pennsylvania Cavalry Meet at Canonsburg

Forty-two veterans of the Eighteenth Pennsylvania Cavalry held their annual reunion Tuesday at Canonsburg, just 47 years after their regiment, then in the Third Cavalry Division, under Genearl G. A. Custer, rode into the face of death at Winchester, where the cavalry turned defeat into victory.

Claysville was selected as the place of next year's reunion, September 19 the anniversary of the famous battle. The following officers were elected: D. K. Gribben, Claysville, president; D. W. Vanatta, West Finley, vice president; W. E. Milliken, Claysville, secretary; Reuben Saunders, Claysville, treasurer.

In the evening a banquet was served for the members of the regiment and other old soldiers living in the vicinity of Canonsburg, after which a campfire was held in the First Presbyterian church. An address of welcome by Rev. C. A. Thomas was responded to by J. Andrew Wilt, Towanda, Pa. Professor John Anthony and Rev. W. P. Aiken gave talks.

Coroner Keeps Tab.

Candidates in town yesterday or today were Jas. H. Heffran of Speers who wants to succeed himself as coroner, and John D. Bumgarner of Washington, one of the Republican candidates for the nomination for register. The former has a pretty good line-up in Charleroi.

STREETS NOT THE PLACE FOR UNUSED VEHICLES

Ordinance Prohibit Use of Thoroughfare by Liverymen

NO WASHING PERMITTED

All Who Own Conveyance Must Keep Them Properly Housed

At a called meeting of council Tuesday night much routine business was transacted, chief of which was the second and final passage of three ordinances. Two of these related to the owners of vehicles using the streets for private purposes. One prohibits the washing of vehicles on the streets, and the other prohibits owners of vehicles to permit them to stand on the streets over night and when not in use.

Another ordinance finally passed was one granting certain rights and privileges to the Charleroi Telephone company in the use of streets and alleys. This ordinance is identical with one passed not long ago granting the same privileges to the Bell Telephone company.

Borough Engineer Elder presented the assessment sheets showing what was due from the property owners for paving Seventh and Eighth streets, who pay on-third the cost of the work on each side of the streets. The reports were accepted and the secretary instructed to notify the owners of the amounts due the borough. The property owners on these streets were also notified to lay walks along their respective properties.

A motion also prevailed to have a sidewalk laid along McKean avenue from Twelfth street to the borough line. As a portion of the property along this street belongs to the borough, the clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for the construction of a four-foot walk along the borough's share of property.

Chairman W. H. Gaut of the light committee reported regarding the use of Tungsten lights, several of which are installed at various points in the borough. He said they seemed to give satisfaction under certain conditions. On motion it was decided to ask the superintendent of the West Penn Electric company to prepare a contract for lighting, and present it to the borough for consideration.

The question of paving Lincoln avenue was discussed. Several persons present circulating petitions for signatures of property owners reported that the necessary three-fourth had not yet been secured, but they were making progress and ultimately hope to secure the requisite number.

President J. K. Hein was in the chair, and the other members present were C. O. Frye, W. H. Calvert, O. T. Linn, W. R. Gaut and Dr. A. O. Davis. Council adjourned to meet again next Monday night.

Candidate Good Cook

"Tom" Mitchell Can Roast An Ox to the Queen's Taste

"Tom" Mitchell, the labor candidate for the nomination for county commissioner on the Republican ticket was in town over Tuesday night in order to attend the meeting of the valley trades council, with which he is affiliated though his identification with organized labor. "Tom" is a veteran worker with a head full of native shrewdness, and in the commisisoners' office would undoubtedly guard the taxpayers' interests, as he knows what it takes to produce a dollar. Charleroi people know "Tom" as the man who for two successive seasons has roasted an ox at the Business Men's picnic at Eldora Park.

SHOOTS; AIM POOR

Foreigner With Good Intentions Fails to Wing Man

BELLE VERNON SCENE

With apparently the best of intentions to do serious injury, John Batiste Nicollett, a foreigner at Belle Vernon drew a revolver and fired three shots into a group of countryman Tuesday night with whom he was having an altercation. By rare good fortune the man's aim was poor, and his intended victim or victims escaped the fusillade. No one was hit but the bunch was badly scared.

The row started on the street near the American Window Glass factory. The crowd had been drinking, it is said, and some roistering conduct ended in an altercation, which caused Nicollett to draw his gun and attempt to shoot up the crowd. Constable J. W. Anderson appeared upon the scene and arrested Nicollett, who after a hearing gave bonds for $500 for his appearance at court.

Nicollett is the brother of a man who was shot and killed at Elizabeth about a year ago by alleged Black Handers. The former states that he has received several threatening Black Hand letters, and for that reason got permission from court to carry a revolver. The charge against his is assault and battery and carrying concealed weapons.

Putting in New Front.

Greenberg Bros., are putting in a new front in the store room of their building fronting on McKean aenue, formerly occupied by Jobes' 5 and 10 cent store. S. K. Scott is doing the work.

Married at Belle Vernon.

F. H.Holroyd of Monessen and Miss Marriet E. Maud of Fayette City were married at Belle Vernon this morning by Rev. G. W. Woodbury, pastor of the First Christian church. The couple will live at Monessen.

Wickerham Hopeful.

Frank B. Wickerham, Republican candidate for register, was in town this morning from Monongahela. He is making a vigorous campaign and says he hopes to break in on Donora and get some of the votes there that are supposed to be slated elsewhere.

CUT IT OUT.

Although the river district is the acknowledged battle ground for the various candidates who aspire to the nominations for county office on their respective tickets, the fight can be made a clean and honorable contest. There is no occasion for the expenditure of untold sums of money by the various candidates, and the sooner this custom is abolished the better it will be for all concerned. The Mail does not believe that any of the candidates are spending money unlawfully, but the custom of employing paid workers in every precinct is a pernicious one, and has a tendency toward demoralizing the proper civic spirit.

It has been the experience of candidates in former contests who employed paid workers to look after their interests that the cost was more than the advantage gained. Every voter imbued with the proper civic spirit will not heed the importunities of a paid worker, and the true friends of a candidate have enough interest in the public welfare to devote what time they can spare for the public good This is the spirit that should prevail, and when it does the prodigal expenditure of money to induce people to vote one way or the other will be abolished. Every voter should resent importunities at the pools by paid election watchers.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"Incredible as it may seem, I met a woman out in Fallowfield township not long ago, who had not only never seen a trolley car, but had actually never been in Charleroi," said a resident who has been interested in the proposed trolley line between here and Bentleyville, and had been traveling the route. "This woman had been born and bred in that community but had never visited Charleroi, and I suppose nowhere else. I remember reading in the newspaper some years ago about a woman who was born and bred in the city of Brooklyn and lived about twenty squares from the Brooklyn bridge,but yet had never seen that structure. I often remembered that item, and wondered how it could be possible. Yet right here within four miles of our doors lives a woman whose range of vision and experience has been equally narrow. I wonder how people can be so contented to live day after day in the same place with never a change of environments."

"This personal registration is not what it is cracked up to be," said a Monongahela man a day or two ago, when speaking about the system which prevails in the down river town on account of the city charter it holds. "In our town all voters have to register personally, and the system is fraught with much inconveniences and trouble. That is not the worst of it. Those in charge of the registration can make it very uncomfortable for the voter who appears for registration if they see fit by propounding all the qestions which the law specifies. For instance a dignified citizen appears to register and is greeted with the question:

"'Are you white or black?'

"This invariably gets the citizen's 'goat,' to use a slang expression, and he usually departs in an indignant frame of mind. Then there are a lot of other foolish and leading questions the registration officers can fire at the voter, if they choose, which is often done when there is bad political blood between the two. For my part, I think personal registration is all nonsense, particularly in small towns. Because of the insults that can be fired at a voter who appears to register, many reputable citizens refrain from voting entirely."

The Doctor's Question

Much Sickness Due to Bowel Disorders

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that ninety-nine per cent of illness is attended with inactive bowers and torpid liver, and that this condition must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored.

Rexall Orderlies are a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of their great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy, they act quietly, and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effects. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. is what is troubling the candidates who are not in the alleged frame-up. With no opposition for their candidate Donora Republicans have no incentive to throw their vote one way, and pressure is being brought to bear to shatter the alleged compact in the interests of certain candidates.

This is why the battle will be fought out in the river district.It will not likely end with the primary. Somebody is bound to get the double cross, and as the time between the primary and the November election is too short to heal the sore spots another battle with the issue uncertain will be fought out at the general election.

Proposed amendments to the Constitution submitted to the citizens of this Commonwealth for their approval or rejection, by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and published by order of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, in pursuance of Article XVIII of the Constitution.

Number One.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, so as to consolidate the courts of common pleas of Allegheny County.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby, proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:—

That section six of article five be amended, by striking out the said section, and inserting in place thereof the following:

Section 6. In the county of Philadelphia all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the district courts and courts of common pleas, subject to such changes as may be made by this Constitution or by law, shall be in Philadelphia vested in five distinct and separate courts of equal and co-ordinate jurisdiction, composed of three judges each. The said courts in Philadelphia shall be designated respectively as the court of common pleas number one, number two, number three, number four, and number five, but the number of said courts may be by law increased, from time to time, and shall be in like manner designated by successive numbers. The number of judges in any of said courts, or in any county where the establishment of an additional court may be authorized by law, may be increased, from time to time, and whenever such increase shall amount in the whole to three, such three judges shall compose a distinct and separate court as aforesaid, which shall be numbered as aforesaid. In Philadelphia all suits shall be instituted in the said courts of common pleas without designating the number of the said court, and the several courts shall distribute and apportion the business among them in such manner as shall be provided by rules of court, and each court, to which any suit shall be thus assigned, shall have exclusive jurisdiction thereof, subject to change of venue, as shall be provided by law.

In the county of Allegheny all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the several numbered courts of common pleas shall be vested in one court of common pleas, composed of all the judges in commission in said courts. Such jurisdiction and powers shall extend to all proceedings at law and in equity which shall have been instituted in the several numbered courts, and shall be subject to such changes as may be made by law, and subject to change of venue as provided by law. The president judge of said court shall be selected as provided by law. The number of judges in said court may be by law increased from time to time. This amendment shall take effect on the first day of January succeeding its adoption.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to section eight, article nine, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met. That the following is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:—

Amendment to Article Nine, Section Eight.

Section 2. Amend section eight, article nine, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows:—

"Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation," so as to read as follows:—

Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation, except that any debt or debts hereinafter incurred by the city and county of Philadelphia for the construction and development of subways for transit purposes, or for the construction of wharves and docks, or the reclamation of land to be used in the construction of a system of wharves and docks, as public improvements, owned or to be owned by said city and county of Philadelphia, and which shall yield to the city and county of Philadelphia current net revenue in excess of the interest on said debt or debts and of the annual installments necessary for the cancellation of said debt or debts, may be excluded in ascertaining the power of the city and county of Philadelphia to become otherwise indebted: Provided, That a sinking fund for their cancellation shall be established and maintained.

CANDIDATES FLOCKING TO THE RIVER DISTRICT

East Side Becomes Battling Ground for Republican Nominees

BIG VOTING CENTERS

Prospect of Large Party Vote in Valley Towns Inspires Effort

That the river district is the battle ground for the Republican nominees at the forthcoming primary, is evidenced by the round-up of candidates who have been rendezvouing in Charleroi during the past few days Nearly every candidatefor the Republican nominations is making a final tour of the river district and in all probability each and every one will concentrate his efforts here during the last few days of the compaign

There is good reasenfor this round-up. Outside of the county seat the river district affords the greatest centers of population in the county. where the vote is more easily gotten out. Then, too. the river district was with some slight exceptions the only territory of any considerable proportions that was not shot to pieces by the Keystone movement last fall This is the only section that can with any degree of certainty be counted upon to give a big Republican vote, and to get that vote bunched for their special benefit is the object and aim of each and every candidate That is why so much activity is displayed in the river district

With local contests for municipal officers in each of the boroughs and townships, there is pretty sure to be perhaps the largest vote ever polled at an election Charleroi, which usually has from 1,500 to 1.600 voters registered, is expected topoll close to 1,200 votes at the primary, between 900 and 1,000 of which should be Republican Owing to the shut-down of the Pittsburg Plate Glass factory and the Charleroi Coal Works nearly all summer, in the neighborhood of 1,000 people were thrown idle, many of whom have sought work elsewhere This will, in all probability, cut down the vote to what it would have been had all the local industries been running full time.

Monongahela and Donora however, will likely poll a bigger Republican vote than ever before Owing to the candidacy of local men in each, as well as the municipal elections. every effort will be made to get out the vote. Monongahela. which boasts a city charter. that requires personal registration, has already registered in the neighborhood of 1,200 voters. As these took the trouble to go to the registration places and inscribe their names, it is pretty safe to assume that they will turn out and vote at the primaries. While the Keystone vote was heavier in Monongahela than in any of the other river towns last fall, it is stated that on account of the candidacy of local people there many who voted the Keystone ticket will return to the Republican fold, so that an unprecedented vote is expected to be cast thereat the primary.

So far as Donora is concerned, the voters there are making a united effort for their candidate for prothonotary and expect to present an unbroken front in his behalf. Whether the town will present the some front to the candidates of the alleged slate

Campaign A Pleasure

Candidate Meets Old Time Friends and Has Good Time

R. G. Alper, Esq., of Washington, Republican candidate for the nomination for district attorney, was in town over Tuesday night in the final round-up of his campaign on the river district. "Dick" says his fences are in good shape, and in addition to the hard work the campaign entails he has had much pleasure in meeting old school friends up California way, where he used to attend the normal, and in which community he followed the footsteps of all great men—taught school in order to get a start.

HER LIFE IN PERIL

Wife Swears Husband is Subject to Diabolical Moods

SLEPT WITH WEAPONS

Lying alongside of her husband night after night for several weeks. with the fear of death always before her, as she alleges, and passing the night from darkness to daylight tossing on her bed, watching for the slightest movement of her husband while he had concealed under his pillow a revolver, a razor and a bottle of carbolic acid, which he told her that he had secured to wipe her from the face of the earth, Mrs Nellie V. Bealty has sought the livorce court to free her from the fear that she claims to have held for during a brief married life.

The Bealty's are residents of Belle Vernon, Mrs. Bealty having married the correspondent who was formerly a local mill man, in 1901. The testimony before the court at Uniontown Saturday was the most sensational ever brought into a divorce suit in Fayette county.

Pulled out of bed at unseemly hours kicked and beaten, almost strangled to death with a well rope, chased from her home in the dead of night with the husband following with a hatchet to scalp her, are only a few of the charges she has testified to in her suit for divorce from her husband. A. P. Beatly. Her life has been one of fright and she has prayed the courts to release her from a man, who she says, whipped her and threatened many times since their honeymoon to kill her..

Game Was a Tie.

The second of a series of three games between the Monessen Lutherans and the Belle Vernon Christians of the Church League of those two towns for a purse of $25 was played at Belle Vernon Tuesday. The game was called in the ninth inning on account of darkness with the score a tie—3-3.

ROSCOE CITIZENS GET ROAD BEE IN BONNETS

Petitions Out to Ask State Highway Commissioner Bigelow to Extend Improved Road Up the River This Fall

By the circulation of petitions from Roscoe to Speers, a movement has been started to try to induce the State Commissioner of Highways. E. M. Bigelow, when he constructs that portion of route No. 118 which leads from Speers to Charleroi, to extend his activities a short distance up the river. Efforts are on foot to try to induce Commissioner Bigelow to include in his work in this section this fall that section of route No. 268 which begins at Speers and constitutes the route from Greensburg to Waynesburg.

The movement started at Roscoe. Petitions were drawn up and circulated by citizens interested in the project, and Commissioner Bigelow will be communicated with by those concerned. What the people there want is the construction of the road this fall leading from Speers to Roscoe. This is a part of the so-called river boulevard. and its construction would unite all the populous communities between Roscoe and Charleroi.

The construction of this road would be of inestimable benefit to Charleroi. and the Roscoe people are anxious to enlist the people here in behalf of their project. Route No. 268. when completed, would follow the river, taking in California, West Brownsville and all the towns along the river to the Greene county line, and thence across the country to Waynesburg, in the great State plan to connect all the county seats Route No. 118 on a portion of which the State engineers are now working, extends from Greensburg to Washington by way of Belle Vernon, Speers, Charleroi and up Maple Creek, on its way to our county seat. The route from Greensburg to Waynesburg uses route No. 118 from Greensburg to Speers, and from thence it proceeds up the river and across the country to Waynesburg. as stated, when it becomes route No. 268.

With the efforts of the Roscoe and Speers people. and what aid Charleroi might be able to give, it may be possible to get this section of route No. 268 from Speers to Roscoe included in the work to be done here this fall. If this can be accomplished with what is in prospect below, a continuous system of improved roads from Roscoe down the river through Charleroi to Pittsburg would be virtually inaugurated. A big effort will be made to get the Speers-Roscoe road included

Man With Bullet in Thigh Thought to be Bridgeville Assassin

Suspected of knowing something of the killing of David J. Steen, superintendent of the Lake Superior mine near Bridgeville last week and unable to satisfactorily explain a bullet wound in his thigh, Philip Polosky was arrested Monday at the Mongah mine near Monongahela by Constable Samuel Hobaugh. The man was today lodged in the Alegheny county jail to await posible identification.

It seems that Polosky came to the Mongah mine Sunday evening and calling on a physician had a 38-caliber bullet removed from his thigh. He asked the doctor to say nothing of the matter. The physician however notified the authorities and Constable Hobaugh questioned Polosky. The man was nervous and told several different stories of how he was shot. Thinking he might know something about the Steen murder of last Saturday the man was arrested.

MONON PHYSICIAN HAS CLOSE SHAVE

When his automobile was caught by a freight engine at the Main street crossing of the M. and W. road in the First ward in Monongahela Tuesday Dr. H. T. Billick of Monongahela had a remarkable escape from death or serious injury.

Dr. Billick in speaking to a friend failed to see the flagman's warning as he aproached the crossing. His automobile crashed directly into the pilot of a southbound freight engine. The engine caught the automobile and carried it along ahead of it a distance of 40 feet finally coming to a stop on the trestle over Pigeon creek.

When the car stopped Dr. Billick was still at the wheel and beyond a slight injury to the foot was unhurt. The rear of the car was badly wrecked.

Expects His Share.

"Bert" Lutton of Washington, candidate for the Republican nomination for sheriff was looking Charleroi over yesterday. "Bert" is well known here, and expects at least to get a portion of the Republican votes cast for sheriff.

FORTY-TWO VETS HOLD REUNION

Survivors of 18th Pennsylvania Cavalry Meet at Canonsburg

Forty-two veterans of the Eighteenth Pennsylvania Cavalry held their annual reunion Tuesday at Canonsburg, just 47 years after their regiment, then in the Third Cavalry Division, under Geneard G. A. Custer, rode into the face of death at Winchester, where the cavalry turned defeat into victory

Claysville was selected as the place of next year's reunion, September 19 the anniversary of the famous battle. The following officers were elected: D. K. Gribben, Claysville, president; D. W. Vanatta, West Finley, vice president; W. E. Milliken, Claysville, secretary; Reuben Saunders, Claysville, treasurer.

In the evening a banquet was served for the members of the regiment and other old soldiers living in the vicinity of Canonsburg, after which a campfire was held in the First Presbyterian church. An address of welcome by Rev. C. A. Thomas was responded to by J. Andrew Wilt, Towanda, Pa. Professor John Anthony and Rev. W. P. Aiken gave talks.

Coroner Keeps Tab.

Candidates in town yesterday or today were Jas. H Heffran of Speers who wants to succeed himself as coroner, and John D. Bumgarner of Washington, one of the Republican candidates for the nomination for register. The former has a pretty good line-up in Charleroi.

STREETS NOT THE PLACE FOR UNUSED VEHICLES

Ordinance Prohibit Use of Thoroughfare by Liverymen

NO WASHING PERMITTED

All Who Own Conveyance Must Keep Them Properly Housed

At a called meeting of council Tuesday night much routine business was transacted, chief of which was the second and final passage of three ordinances Two of these related to the owners of vehicles using the streets for private purposes. One prohibits the washing of vehicles on the streets, and the other prohibits owners of vehicles to permit them to stand on the streets over night and when not in use.

Another ordinance finally passed was one granting certain rights and privileges to the Charleroi Telephone company in the use of streets and alleys This ordinance is identical with one passed not long ago granting the same privileges to the Bell Telephone company.

Borough Engineer Elder presented the assessment sheets showing what was due from the property owners for paving Seventh and Eighth streets. who pay on-third the cost of the work on each side of the streets. The reports were accepted and the secretary instructed to notify the owners of the amounts due the borough. The property owners on these streets were also notified to lay walks along their respective properties

A motion also prevailed to have a sidewalk laid along McKean avenue from Twelfth street to the borough line. As a portion of the property along this street belongs to the borough, the clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for the construction of a four-foot walk along the borough's share of property.

Chairman W. H. Gaut of the light committee reported regarding the use of Tungsten lights, several of which are installed at various points in the borough He said they seemed to give satisfaction under certain conditions. On motion it was decided to ask the superintendent of the West Penn Electric company to prepare a contract for lighting, and present it to the borough for consideration.

The question of paving Lincoln avenue was discussed. Several persons present circulating petitions for signatures of property owners reported that the necessary three-fourths had not yet been secured, but they were making progress and ultimately hope to secure the requisite number.

President J. K. Hein was in the chair, and the other members present were C. O Frye, W. H. Calvert, O. T. Linn, W. R. Gaut and Dr. A. O. Davis. Council adjourned to meet again next Monday night.

Wickerham Hopeful.

Frank B. Wickerham, Republican candidate for register, was in town this morning from Monongahela. He is making a vigorous campaign and says he hopes to break in on Donora and get some of the votes there that are supposed to be slated elsewhere.

Candidate Good Cook

"Tom" Mitchell Can Roast An Ox to the Queen's Taste

"Tom" Mitchell the labor candidate for the nomination for county commissioner on the Republican ticket was in town over Tuesday night in order to attend the meeting of the valley trades council, with which he is affiliated though his identification with organized labor "Tom" is a veteran worker with a head full of native shrewdness. and in the commisisoners' office would undoubtedly guard the taxpayers' interests, as he knows what it takes to produce a dollar. Charleroi people know "Tom" as the man who for two successive seasons has roasted an ox at the Business Men's picnic at Eldora Park.

Foreigner With Good Intentions Fails to Wing Man

BELLE VERNON SCENE

With apparently the best of intentions to do serious injury, John Batiste Nicollett, a foreigner at Belle Vernon drew a revolver and fired three shots into a group of countryman Tuesday night with whom he was having an altercation. By rare good fortune the man's aim was poor, and his intended victim or victims escaped the fusillade. No one was hit but the bunch was badly scared.

The row started on the street near the American Window Glass factory. The crowd had been drinking, it is said, and some roistering conduct ended in an altercation, which caused Nicollett to draw his gun and attempt to shoot up the crowd. Constable J. W. Anderson appeared upon the scene and arrested Nicollett, who after a hearing gave bonds for $500 for his appearance at court.

Nicollett is the brother of a man who was shot and killed at Elizabeth about a year ago by alleged Black Handers. The former states that he has received several threatening Black Hand letters, and for that reason got permission from court to carry a revolver. The charge against his is assault and battery and carrying concealed weapons.

CUT IT OUT.

Although the river district is the acknowledged battle ground for the various candidates who aspire to the nominations for county office on their respective tickets, the fight can be made a clean and honorable contest. There is no occasion for the expenditure of untold sums of money by the various candidates, and the sooner this custom is abolished the better it will be for all concerned. The Mail does not believe that any of the candidates are spending money unlawfully, but the custom of employing paid workers in every precinct is a pernicious one, and has a tendency toward demoralizing the proper civic spirit.

It has been the experience of candidates in former contests who employed paid workers to look after their interests that the cost was more than the advantage gained. Every voter imbued with the proper civic spirit will not heed the importunities of a paid worker, and the true friends of a candidate have enough interest in the public welfare to devote what time they can spare for the public good This is the spirit that should prevail, and when it does the prodigal expenditure of money to induce people to vote one way or the other will be abolished. Every voter should resent importunities at the pools by paid election watchers.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"Incredible as it may seem, I met a woman out in Fallowfield township not long ago, who had not only never seen a trolley car, but had actually never been in Charleroi," said a resident who has been interested in the proposed trolley line between here and Bentleyville, and had been traveling the route. "This woman had been born and bred in that community, but had never visited Charleroi, and I suppose nowhere else. I remember reading in the newspaper some years ago about a woman who was born and bred in the city of Brooklyn and lived about twenty squares from the Brooklyn bridge, but yet had never seen that structure. I often remembered that item, and wondered how it could be possible. Yet right here within four miles of our doors lives a woman whose range of vision and experience has been equally narrow. I wonder how people can be so contented to live day after day in the same place with never a change of environments."

"This personal registration is not what it is cracked up to be," said a Monongahela man a day or two ago, when speaking about the system which prevails in the down river town on account of the city charter it holds. "In our town all voters have to register personally, and the system is fraught with much inconveniences and trouble. That is not the worst of it. Those in charge of the registration can make it very uncomfortable for the voter who appears for registration if they see fit by propounding all the qestions which the law specifies. For instance a dignified citizen appears to register and is greeted with the question:

"'Are you white or black?'

"This invariably gets the citizen's 'goat,' to use a slang expression, and he usually departs in an indignant frame of mind. Then there are a lot of other foolish and leading questions the registration officers can fire at the voter, if they choose, which is often done when there is bad political blood between the two. For my part, I think personal registration is all nonsense, particularly in small towns. Because of the insults that can be fired at a voter who appears to register, many reputable citizens refrain from voting entirely."

A few reasons why! Charles S. Ritchie should be nominated and elected Treasurer of Washington County.

1st. He promises if elected to conduct the office in a strictly business like manner and to be governed according to the laws of the State of Pennsylvania regulating the duties of County Treasurer.

2nd. He has thoroughly qualified himself as to ability and fitness by his work as Deputy Controller in producing and installing a system of bookkeeping in the County Controller's office, by which the taxpayers can learn every day all about the fiscal affairs of Washington County.

3rd. He is not a slated candidate but a candidate of the people and not a slate maker but a slate breaker. Vote for him.

The Doctor's Question

Much Sickness Due to Bowel Disorders

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that ninety-nine per cent of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver, and that this condition must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored.

Rexall Orderlies are a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of their great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy, they act quietly, and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effects. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Three sizes, 50c., 25 c and 10c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store. Carrolls Drug Store, 625 Fallowfield avenue.

is what is troubling the candidates who are not in the alleged frame-up. With no opposition for their candidate Donora Republicans have no incentive to throw their vote one way, and pressure is being brought to bear to shatter the alleged compact in the interests of certain candidates.

This is why the battle will be fought out in the river district.It will not likely end with the primary. Somebody is bound to get the double cross, and as the time between the primary and the November election is too short to heal the sore spots another battle with the issue uncertain will be fought out at the general election.

Proposed amendments to the Constitution submitted to the citizens of this Commonwealth for their approval or rejection, by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and published by order of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, in pursuance of Article XVIII of the Constitution.

Number One.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, so as to consolidate the courts of common pleas of Allegheny County.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby, proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:—

That section six of article five be amended, by striking out the said section, and inserting in place thereof the following:

Section 6. In the county of Philadelphia all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the district courts and courts of common pleas, subject to such changes as may be made by this Constitution or by law, shall be in Philadelphia vested in five distinct and separate courts of equal and co-ordinate jurisdiction, composed of three judges each. The said courts in Philadelphia shall be designated respectively as the court of common pleas number one, number two, number three, number four, and number five, but the number of said courts may be by law increased, from time to time, and shall be in like manner designated by successive numbers. The number of judges in any of said courts, or in any county where the establishment of an additional court may be authorized by law, may be increased, from time to time, and whenever such increase shall amount in the whole to three, such three judges shall compose a distinct and separate court as aforesaid, which shall be numbered as aforesaid. In Philadelphia all suits shall be instituted in the said courts of common pleas without designating the number of the said court, and the several courts shall distribute and apportion the business among them in such manner as shall be provided by rule of court, and each court, to which any suit shall be thus assigned, shall have exclusive jurisdiction thereof, subject to change of venue, as shall be provided by law.

In the county of Allegheny all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the several numbered courts of common pleas shall be vested in one court of common pleas, composed of all the judges in commission in said courts. Such jurisdiction and powers shall extend to all proceedings at law and in equity which shall have been instituted in the several numbered courts, and shall be subject to such changes as may be made by law, and subject to change of venue as provided by law. The president judge of said court shall be selected as provided by law. The number of judges in said court may be by law increased from time to time. This amendment shall take effect on the first day of January succeeding its adoption.

Number Two.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to section eight, article nine, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:—

Amendment to Article Nine, Section Eight.

Section 2. Amend section eight, article nine, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows:—

"Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation," so as to read as follows:—

Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation, except that any debt or debts hereinafter incurred by the city and county of Philadelphia for the construction and development of subways for transit purposes, or for the construction of wharves and docks, or the reclamation of land to be used in the construction of a system of wharves and docks, as public improvements, owned or to be owned by said city and county of Philadelphia, and which shall yield to the city and county of Philadelphia current net revenue in excess of the interest on said debt or debts and of the annual installments necessary for the cancellation of said debt or debts, may be excluded in ascertaining the power of the city and county of Philadelphia to become otherwise indebted: Provided, That a sinking fund for their cancellation shall be established and maintained.
